

76 Wetherall's Map of the Battle of Balaklava

COTLB map from WETHERALL'S HISTORY: WO28/199 : Battle of Balaklava

Edward Robert Wetherall (1818-1869): Ensign (1834)/Major General (1869) : served with distinction in the Crimean War.

This map is useful in showing the most likely locations of the Light and Heavy Cavalry Brigades during the battle.

Tony Margrave states:- “Wetherall is associated by the Nat.Archives, Kew, with an abortive attempt to write an official history of the Cr War in the QMG Dept, Horse Guards. The surviving papers are in WO028/196 and WO28/199."
